RAPPORTEUR'S REPORT:

Bamanpukur Humayun Kabir Mahavidyalaya, 23rd August, 2017: Department of English of Bamanpukur Humayun Kabir Mahavidyalaya organised an orientation programme for the encouragement and uplift of their career and study. This platform also offered them to interact with veteran teachers to solve their problem in their study. Honourable Principal of the college, Dr. Subash Biswas delivered the inaugural speech. He condemned the note based study and advised the students to read pros and cons of the subjects. He also advised the present students to read interdisciplinary subjects to have a sound knowledge in his/her subject. He concluded his lecture by emphasising on the necessity of organising orientation programme. Then the organising Department teachers felicitated the honourable resource persons, Dr. Shipra Mukherjee, Dr. Sharmistha C. Sriwastav, Dr. Madhumita Majumdar, and Dr. Debashish Sengupta very cordially. Sarodia Das, first year English Honours Student sang the inaugural song 'Aguner Paroshmoni'. After that all the students of the department sang 'We Shall Overcome' in a chorus. Then the main programme of orientation started. Prof. Madhumita Majumdar of Bhangore College advised them to read newspaper and listen to news in television every day. She also advised us to start a language lab in the college. Dr. Shipra Mukherjee, the HOD of the Dept. of English of WBSU gave a career oriented approach to study. Likewise Dr. Sharmistha C. Sriwastav of Aliah University and Dr. Debashish Sengupta of RBC College provided their valuable advises to the students.
