Introduction:

The Flag Day of Quami Ekta Week and National Education Day was observed on December 12, 2018, at Bamanpukur Humayun Kabir Mahavidyalaya, organized by Sri Arghadip Paul, Assistant Professor, Department of Education. The objective of the event was to promote the spirit of unity, integrity, and national integration among students, teachers, and society as a whole. The event also aimed to highlight the importance of education in the overall development of an individual and society.

Inauguration:

The event was inaugurated by Dr. Subhash Biswas, Principal, BHKM, who emphasized the significance of the event and urged everyone to actively participate in the event. He also appreciated the efforts of Sri Arghadip Paul and his team in organizing such a meaningful event. Dr. Abhijit Kr Paul, HOD, Department of Education, West Bengal State University, was the chief guest, who encouraged the audience to uphold the values of national unity and integrity.

Lecture Details:

Sri Arghadip Paul, the organizer of the event, delivered a lecture on the significance of the Flag Day of Quami Ekta Week and National Education Day. He emphasized the need for promoting national integration, communal harmony, and social cohesion among people from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds. He also stressed the importance of education in fostering these values and preparing the youth to face the challenges of the 21st century.

After that Dr. Abhijit Kr. Paul, HoD, Dept. of Education, WBSU and the chief guest of the programme delivered his lecture on the importance of unity in diversity in Indian Culture. The lecture covered the history of the Flag Day of Quami Ekta Week, which is observed every year from November 19 to November 25. The event aims to promote national unity and integrity among the people of India, regardless of their religion, caste, or language. The lecture also highlighted the importance of National Education Day, which is celebrated every year on November 11, to commemorate the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the first Education Minister of independent India.

Dr. Paul also discussed the various measures taken by the government to promote education in India, such as the Right to Education Act, Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan, and Mid-Day Meal Scheme. He stressed that education is not only about acquiring knowledge and skills but also about developing a sense of social responsibility, empathy, and compassion towards fellow human beings.

Cultural Programme:

A cultural program was organized by a group of students under the supervision of Prof. Shiv Narayan Verma. The program showcased the diversity of Indian culture through various dance forms, such as Bharatanatyam, Kathak, and Manipuri. The program also included patriotic songs and a skit highlighting the importance of national unity and integration.

Outcomes:

The event was successful in achieving its objectives of promoting national integration and education among the students and society. The lecture and cultural program helped the audience to understand the importance of national unity and integrity and the role of education in achieving these goals. The event also provided a platform for students to showcase their talents and creativity.
