Activity Report

On 22nd March 2018, a seminar was held in the Seminar Hall of BHK Mahavidyalaya to celebrate the birthday of Amiyabhushan Mazumder, a renowned literary figure. The seminar was inaugurated by the Principal of BHKM, Subhash Biswas. A total of 17 participants were present at the event, including faculty members, students, and other literary enthusiasts.

The seminar was organized by Debraj Howlader, an Assistant Professor in the Department of Bengali at BHKM. The resource person for the seminar was Dr. Jaganmay Patra, a faculty member in the Department of Bengali at SACT. Dr. Patra is a well-known scholar in the field of Bengali literature and has published several research papers and books on the subject.

The seminar began with the lighting of the lamp by the Principal, Subhash Biswas, and the resource person, Dr. Jaganmay Patra. This was followed by a welcome address by the organizing secretary, Debraj Howlader, who introduced the audience to the theme of the seminar and the life and works of Amiyabhushan Mazumder. Dr. Patra then took the stage and delivered a lecture on the literary contributions of Amiyabhushan Mazumder. He spoke about Mazumder's unique writing style, his use of symbolism and metaphors, and his ability to create vivid imagery through his writing. Dr. Patra also talked about the themes that were often explored in Mazumder's work, such as love, loss, and human relationships.

The lecture was followed by a discussion session, where the participants had the opportunity to ask questions and share their thoughts on Mazumder's work. Several participants spoke about their personal experiences with Mazumder's writing and how it had influenced them. Others shared their own interpretations of his work and discussed the relevance of his writing in the contemporary world.

The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks by Debraj Howlader, who thanked the resource person, Dr. Jaganmay Patra, for his insightful lecture, and the participants for their active participation in the discussion session. He also thanked the Principal, Subhash Biswas, for inaugurating the seminar and showing his support for the literary community at BHKM.

Overall, the seminar was a great success and provided a platform for literary enthusiasts to come together and celebrate the life and works of a great literary figure. It was an enriching experience for all the participants and served as a reminder of the importance of literature in our lives.
