Report of the observation of Communal Harmony

Campaign Week (Qaumi Ekta)

Organizing Secretary: Dr. Md. Nasir Uddin Mondal

Dated: 19/11/2019

Time: 11 am to 2 pm

Venue: Chandipur Rangara High School

Communal Harmony Campaign Week (Qaumi Ekta) is celebrated to promote communal harmony across the country. It mainly works to strengthen the spirit of national unity, increase communal harmony and enhance the value of secularism in our country. Dr. Md. Nasir Uddin Mondal, Assistant Professor of Arabic and Ms. Minakshi Biswas, Assistant Professor of Political Science of Bamanpukur Humayun Kabir Mahavidyalaya visited along with some students to Chandipur Rangara High School, P.O. Ghoshpur, South 24 Parganas, on 19.11.2019 for observing Qaumi Ekta Week celebration. The teacher members discussed and emphasized on the crucial significance of observing the message of unity of Qaumi Ekta. Also a number of stickers and pamphlets were distributed among the teachers and students. A donation box was carried along to the students of Chandipur Rangara High School. Both the teachers and students of Chandipur Rangara High School donated generously. The student community listened with rapt attention to the discussions and were encouraged by the message of 'unity in diversity' that is a veritable part of Indian culture. The programme ended on a positive note.
