Introduction:

BHK Mahavidyalaya recently organized a Birth Day Celebration of Rabindranath & Seminar on 08.05.2022. The event was aimed at honoring the birth anniversary of the renowned poet and philosopher, Rabindranath Tagore, and to promote his teachings and ideals. As a rapporteur, I had the opportunity to attend and report on the event.

Location and Date:

The Birth Day Celebration of Rabindranath & Seminar was held at BHK Mahavidyalaya. The event was organized by department of Bengali on 8th May, 2020 in skype platform.

Activities:

The Birth Day Celebration of Rabindranath & Seminar was a day-long event that included various activities, such as:

Inauguration:

The event was started with an inaugural song by the student of Department of Bengali. Then Dr. Subhash Biswas, Principal of the college delivered the inaugural speech. His speech focused on the life and works of Rabindranath Tagore, and his contributions to literature and philosophy. The speaker highlighted Tagore's views on education, religion, and nationalism, and how they are relevant in the present times. The speaker also spoke about Tagore's vision of a society based on equality and freedom, and how it can inspire the youth to work towards a better future.

Key note Speech by Prof. Apurba Dey:

Prof. Apurba Dey, who is a renowned scholar and expert on Rabindranath Tagore's works delivered the keynote speech. The keynote speech was delivered by [insert name], an eminent scholar and researcher in the field of literature. The speaker highlighted the significance of Rabindranath Tagore's teachings and ideals in the present times. The keynote speech focused on the importance of Tagore's philosophy of humanism, which emphasizes the unity of all human beings and the need for empathy and compassion.

The speaker also highlighted Tagore's contributions to literature, music, and education. The speaker emphasized Tagore's role in shaping modern Bengali literature and music and his contribution to the field of education through his vision of Shantiniketan.

Speech by Dr. Runa Das chaudhuri:

The next speaker was Dr. Runa Das Chaudhuri. She discussed on the social view of Rabindranath Tagore. She highlighted that Tagore's social view was deeply rooted in humanism, which emphasized the unity of all human beings and the need for empathy and compassion. He believed that social progress could only be achieved if the society was based on the principles of equality, justice, and liberty.

Tagore was a staunch advocate of women's rights and believed in the empowerment of women. He was deeply concerned about the status of women in society and advocated for their education and economic independence. He believed that women could play a significant role in the development of society if given the opportunity.

Speech by Dr. Jaganmoy Patra:

The next speaker was Dr. Jaganmoy Patra, who discussed the Tagore's reflection on the relation between man and environment. He highlighted that Tagore believed that the natural world was an essential part of human existence and that the destruction of the environment would ultimately lead to the destruction of human civilization. He advocated for the protection and preservation of the environment and emphasized the need for a harmonious relationship between humans and nature.

Cultural Programs:

The event also included various cultural programs, such as songs, and recitations, based on the works of Rabindranath Tagore.

Response:

The Birth Day Celebration of Rabindranath & Seminar received an overwhelming response from the students, faculty, and the general public. The event was attended by a large number of people, including eminent personalities from different fields. The speeches, cultural programs, and seminar were highly appreciated by the audience. The event helped in promoting the teachings and ideals of Rabindranath Tagore and provided a platform for scholarly discussions.
