Activity Report

On the occasion of the birth anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore, a seminar was held on May 9, 2021, at 11:30 am via Google Meet. The seminar was attended by a total of 62 participants, including students and faculty members of the Bengali Department.

The seminar began with an inaugural song sung by the students of the Bengali Department. The seminar was inaugurated by Dr. Subahas Biswas, the Principal of BHKM. He emphasized the importance of celebrating the birth anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore and the need to spread his message of peace and love.

The first resource person of the seminar was Ajijul Hoque Mondal, an Assistant Professor at BHK Mahavidyalaya. He delivered a lecture on the life and works of Rabindranath Tagore. He talked about Tagore's contribution to literature, music, and social reform. He also discussed Tagore's ideas on education, nationalism, and humanism. The lecture was followed by a Q&A session, where participants asked questions and shared their thoughts on the topic.

The second resource person of the seminar was Ajay Patra, a SACT at BHK Mahavidyalaya. He spoke about Tagore's philosophy of life and his vision for a better world. He emphasized the importance of Tagore's message of universal brotherhood and how it can help in building a more harmonious society.

The third resource person of the seminar was Arup Kr Banerjee, another SACT at BHK Mahavidyalaya. He talked about Tagore's contribution to music and the impact of his music on Indian classical music. He also discussed Tagore's influence on other musicians and his role in the development of Bengali music.

After the resource persons, Koushik Paul, a student of the Bengali Department, delivered a lecture on Tagore's poem "Where the Mind is Without Fear." He talked about the significance of the poem and how it reflects Tagore's vision of a free and progressive India.

The seminar also included a performance of Rabindra Sangeet by Shiv Narayan Verma. He sang some of Tagore's famous songs, including "Ekla Chalo Re" and "Ami Chini Go Chini Tomare."

The seminar ended with a vote of thanks by Debraj Howlader, the Organizing Secretary of the seminar and the Assistant Professor & HOD of the Bengali Department at BHKM. He thanked all the participants and the resource persons for their valuable contributions to the seminar. He emphasized the need to continue spreading Tagore's message of love and peace in our society.

Overall, the seminar was a great success and helped in spreading awareness about the life and works of Rabindranath Tagore. It provided a platform for participants to learn more about Tagore's contribution to literature, music, and social reform, and to discuss his ideas on education, nationalism, and humanism.
