Report of Induction Programme, Department of Bengali:

Activity Report

The Induction Programme of the Department of Bengali was organized by the Departmental Head, Debraj Howlader, on 30th November 2021, at the Seminar Hall. The event was aimed at welcoming the newly admitted students of the department and introducing them to the academic environment and resources available at the college.

The programme began with an inaugural speech by the chief guest, Dr. Subhash Biswas, the Principal of BHKM. In his speech, he welcomed the students to the college and encouraged them to make the most of the opportunities available to them. He also stressed the importance of hard work and dedication in achieving success.

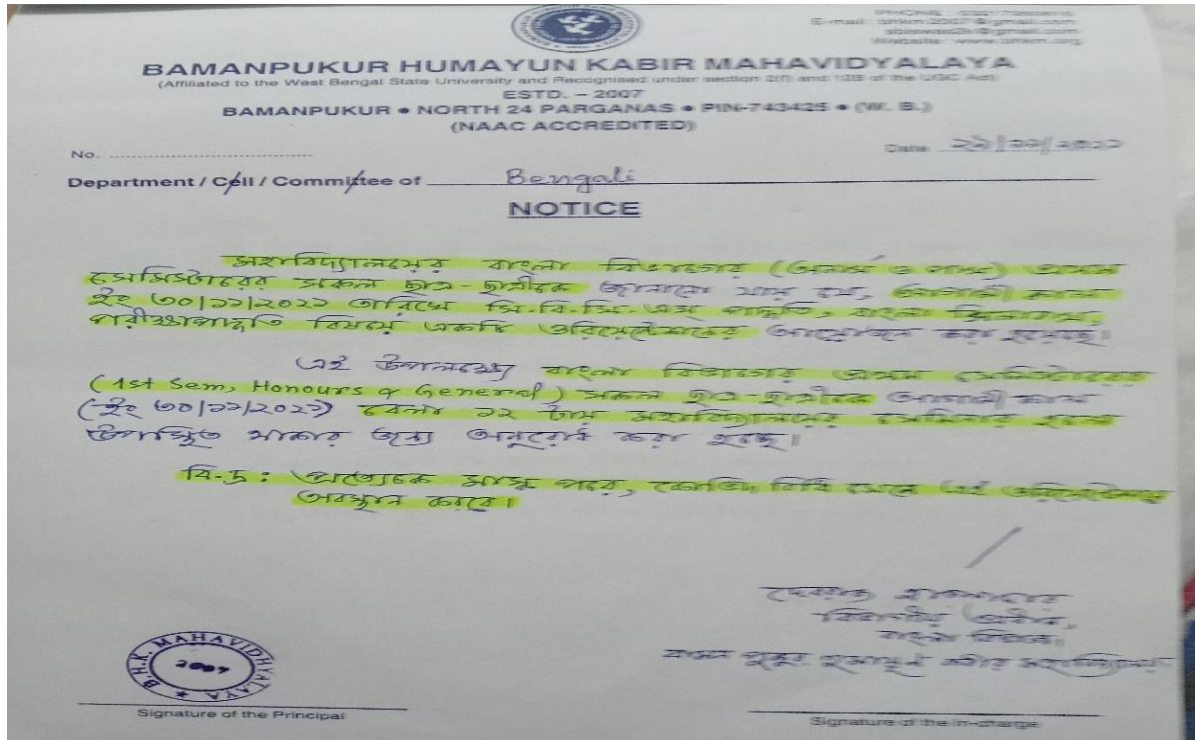

This was followed by a speech by the guest, Dr. Arghadip Paul, from the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of BHKM. He highlighted the role of IQAC in ensuring the quality of education in the college and provided an overview of the various initiatives taken by IQAC to improve the quality of teaching and learning.

Next, Debraj Howlader, the HOD of the Department of Bengali, gave a speech. He welcomed the students to the department and introduced them to the faculty members. He also briefed them about the course curriculum and the various opportunities available to them for research and academic development.

Dr. Ajjul Hq Mondal, an Assistant Professor of the Department of Bengali, also gave a speech. He spoke about the importance of Bengali literature and language in the contemporary world and encouraged the students to take an active interest in the subject.

Finally, the programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Jaganmoy Patra, a SACT member of the Department of Bengali. He thanked the chief guest, the guest speaker, the faculty members and the students for making the event a success
