Execution: On the Day of the Rally students gathered at the college campus and made two cues. Many among them held the festoon where the slogans appropriate for the International Mother Language Day in the rally in scripted. All the teachers and Non-Teaching Staffs present on the day came to participate in the rally. Total 120 students and 9 Staffs were participated in the rally. The song ‘amar mayer rakte ranga ekushe February/ aami ki bhulte pari’ was being played at the background. The Students and the staff also sang the song. Amidst this thrill and excitement the Guests of Honour were invited to flag off the rally. The Principal of the college who motivated the teachers and students to observe such important days could not be present because of his sudden illness and hospitalization, but he even in his illness always kept in touch with the programme. The Flag was then transferred to the convenor of the Programme, Ashis Biswas from the Dignitaries and the rally commenced at about 10.45 am. Zeal and enthusiasm was oozing out of the participating students and teaching and non-teaching staff. The rally continued from the college campus to Christian Para and the way back to the college campus. People gathered on the side of the road in the market place and other areas near to the college to watch the rally. The purpose of the rally was to take these programmes to the people of the locality outside the college campus. The Rally after completing its tour from the Christian Para reached at the college campus at about 11.30 am. The students again gathered in the college campus in cues. The convenor of the Extension Cell Ashis Biswas then gave the vote of thanks to all the present teachers, non-teaching staff and students and the organising committee members. After this the rally was disbursed and students went to the seminar hall to participate in farther proceedings of the day.
