INTRODUCTION AND ORGANIZATION

The Department of Education of Bamanpukur Humayun Kabir Mahavidyalaya along with Equal opportunity cell organised an Awareness programme on “INTERNATIONAL OLD AGE DAY” and proposed date for the visit was settled. The requisite permission was sought from the principal of the college for the same, and the allotment of time and date was confirmed. Notice and programme brochure were circulated to the students and the teachers accordingly. All the Resource Persons accepted the proposal and confirmed the presence.

The senior citizen population rises as life expectancy increases. There are many things that can be done to help these senior citizens feel that they are still needed and valued within our community. These older adults serve as essential resources to our community as they can be highly skilled and proficient and are able to contribute their world of knowledge and experience. Our seniors are our responsibility. Intergenerational equity is a principle of natural justice. A generation which neglects its elders and aged commits crime and shall be met with same fate in their elder years. Ageing is a natural process, which inevitably occurs in human life cycle. It brings with a host of challenges in the life of the elderly, which are mostly caused by the changes in their body, mind, thought process. Ageing refers to a decline in the functional capacity of the organs of the human body, which occurs mostly due to physiological transformation. The senior citizens constitute a precious reservoir of such human resource as is gifted with knowledge of various sorts, varied experiences and deep insights. Maybe they have formally retired, yet an overwhelming majority of them are physically and mentally capable of contributing to the wellbeing of the society. Hence, given an appropriate opportunity, they are in a position to make significant contribution to the socioeconomic development of their nation.

The students of Department of Education along with members of Equal opportunity cell, gathered in the college. Later on, with Prof Sumita Chatterjee along with Sikha giri Maity , explained the programme schedule. The students after reaching Minakha explained the villagers about the importance of the day Dr Subhas Biswas Principal BHKM previously described the students about the village and importance of the village. The students distributed sweets, and fruits and spend some quality time with the senior citizen. Dr Minakshi Biswas ,Prof Madhu Sriwastav ,Dr Sanchita Hazra also explained the importance of the day.
