Glimpses of the online programme student-to –student learning with Ms. Anuja Dutta, M.Phil delivering her lecture on 15th March and 18th March 2021

Objectives of the programme:

- 1.To create and implement effective lesson plans to meet the individual needs of diverse learners.
- 2.develop competence in creating and using instructional materials and techniques.
- 3.utilize technology for instruction and communication.
- 4.create an effective classroom management plan.

Details of the programme:

Ms. Anuja Dutta has graduated in Sociology from Presidency University and completed her M.Phil(Sociology) from Jadavpur University. She delivered two online lectures on the module 'Introduction to Sociology' on 15.3.2021 and 18.3.2021 to students of the Department of Sociology, 1st semester, Bamanpukur Humayun Kabir Mahavidyalaya, West Bengal State University. 19 and 17 students participated in the programme on 15.3.2021 and 18,3.2021. respectively. Ms. Dutta still a student herself and in-between in her Ph.D. course admission enthusiastically interacted with the students. She spoke on social mobility, stratification and many other related topics. Many questions were raised by students. Her lectures were treated like doubt-clearing sessions by the first semester students who were preparing for their end-semester examinations. Ms. Dutta's explanations were very well received by the students.
