Organizing Team: Sociology General Students of Semester IV

On 11.8.2021 the students from semester IV Sociology Department IV arranged a farewell party in the titled "Salutation Bash" for the final year outgoing students of semester VI. Farewell is basically a get together kind of celebration for the seniors who will be soon stepping out of that particular institute, here college. Hence juniors wish their seniors a good luck for their next big adventures in various forms like singing, dancing, with motivational speeches etc.

Details of the programme:

The programme started at the scheduled time. The google meet platform was abuzz with voices since students were allowed unlike in classes to unmute themselves. Ruma Ranjit, a Semester IV student anchored the programme. Soma Mondal and Bulti Pramanik recited poems and these two presentations were followed by songs sung by Rupsanara Khatun and Dipa Naskar. The total number of students present in the programme was 19.

In her concluding lecture, Dr. Runa Das Chaudhuri, HOD, of Sociology said that students become the subject of the teacher's actions, the target of the teacher's thoughts, and compliments of the teacher's endeavors. In the process she mentioned that she has indeed taught students; however, it is also true that she, too, has learned so much from all of the students. She made a special mention that collective belonging to a classroom had acquired a new form in the unprecedented times of the pandemic and that an online farewell programme was the first of its kind to be held in the department. it was a long journey spent very quickly just because of your will to do something better in the future.

In the end, all the students were felicitated by the Dr. Runa Das Chaudhuri, HOD, of Sociology with small speeches describing her students in a few words. While addressing the students, she also explained the dilemmas which would be barriers in the professional world how the students should prepare themselves for their future endeavors and wished them with her motivational speech.
