Report of the Awareness Campaign on Staff Selection Commission Examination

The Staff Selection Commission is a government organization in India responsible for recruiting staff for various government departments and ministries. They conduct a range of examination including the Combined Graduate Level (CGL) Exam, the Combined Higher Secondary Level (CHSL) Exam, the Junior Engineer (JE) Exam, and the Multi-Tasking Staff (MTS) Exam.

To create awareness about these exams, the IQAC of the Bamanpukur Humayun Kabir Mahavidyalay conducted an awareness campaigns in collaboration with NSS, BHK Mahavidyalaya, and in association with Staff Selection Commission – Eastern Region on 27.02.2023 at 12:00 noon to 2:00 p.m. at the Seminar hall of the college. The primary objective of the Awareness Campaign on Staff Selection Commission Examination is to create awareness among potential candidates about the exams and to encourage them to apply for the same. Some of the potential outcomes of the campaign could include:

1. Increase in the number of applications: Awareness campaigns can help in increasing the number of applications received for the exams. This can result in a larger pool of candidates, thereby increasing the chances of finding the right fit for the job.
2. Better understanding of the exam: Awareness campaigns can help potential candidates to understand the exam pattern, eligibility criteria, and other important details. This can help them to prepare better and increase their chances of cracking the exam.
3. Reduction in misinformation: Sometimes, candidates may have misconceptions or incorrect information about the exams. Awareness campaigns can help in reducing such misinformation and provide accurate information to potential candidates.
4. Improved diversity: Awareness campaigns can encourage candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply for the exams. This can help in achieving better diversity in the workforce, which can lead to better decision-making and performance.

The Programme Session:

1. Session – 1:

In the first session, Sri Ashis Biswas, Assistant Professor of English, and member of IQAC and the Organizing Secretary of the Programme welcomed all the participants and the dignitaries to the awareness campaign. He informed students that The Staff Selection Commission is a government organization in India responsible for recruiting staff for various government departments and ministries. He thanked Sri Arun Kumar Sarkar, Deputy Director of Staff Selection Commission and Sri. Alope Kr. Nandy, Deputy Director of Staff Selection Commission for being the resource person of the seminar cum workshop. A handout material was distributed among all the participants for better understanding of the SSC examinations.

2. Session – 2:

In the second session, Dr. Subhash Biswas, Principal of the college inaugurated the programme and delivered the inaugural speech. He emphasized on importance of conducting such job oriented programme as per the NEP-2020 which is going to be implemented soon in our state.

3. Session – 3:

The speaker of the third session started was Sri. Alok Kumar Nandy, Deputy Director of Staff Selection Commission-Eastern Region. He discussed on the various examinations conducted by the Staff Selection Commission throughout the year. He presented an Annual Calendar of the various examinations of the SSC.

4. Session – 4:

The speaker of the fourth session was Sri. Arun Kumar Sarkar, Deputy Director of Staff Selection Commission-Eastern Region. He discussed the mode of exam, Registration process, fees for the examination, and syllabus of the SSC Exam. He also discussed about the group study methods and question pattern for the crack the service exam.

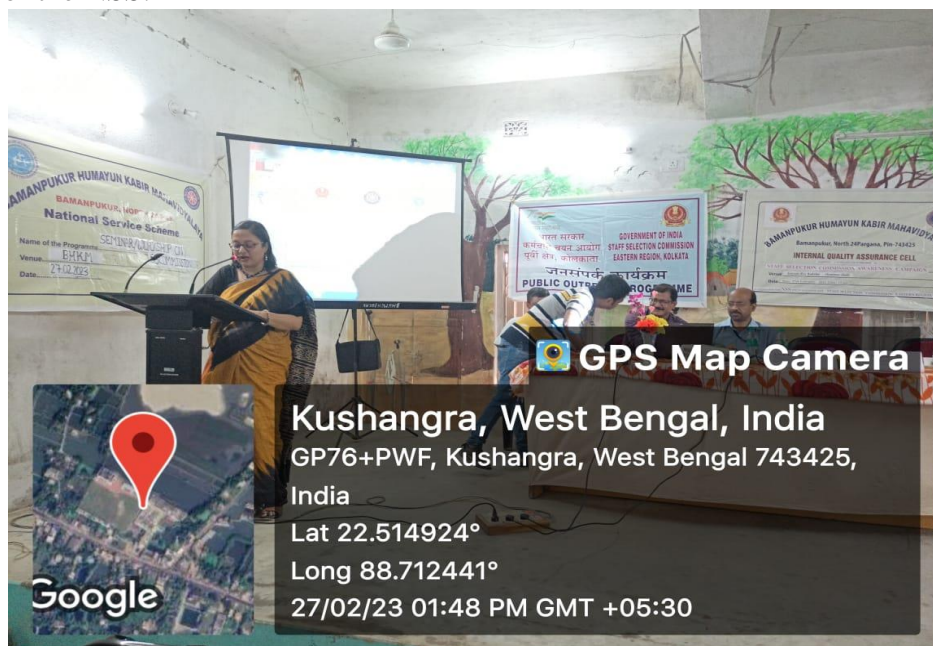

5. Session – 5:

The session 5 was the Question Answer Session, which was moderated by Sri Ashis Biswas. Students actively participated in this session. They asked many questions about various aspects of the examination.

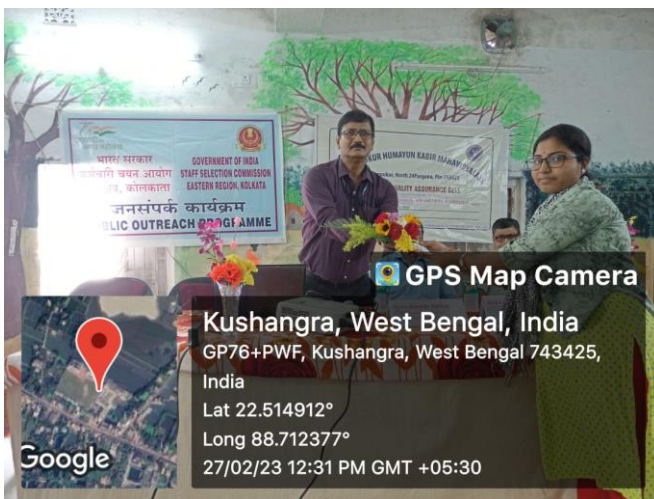

6. Session – 6.

The last session was vote of thanks session. The formal Vote of thanks was delivered by Sumita Chatterjee, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, BHKM, and Programme Officer of the NSS.

7. The Programme ended with the National Anthem by all participants.

Sir/Madam,

As you may be aware that Staff Selection Commission is the recruitment agency for recruitment in Group B (Non Gazetted) and Group C posts of the Central Government Ministries/Departments/Offices. The Commission endeavours to increase its outreach so as to increase participation of more candidates in the recruitment process. In this regard we would like to hold a presentation to the aspiring students of your esteemed institution, tentatively in the first or second week of February 2023, about different recruitment examinations held by the Commission with a view to enhance awareness among the candidates about different employment opportunities through the Commission.

We look forward to your institution for making arrangement for a Power Point Presentation on a date convenient to you. You are requested to kindly confirm the said programme and propose a date and time for the same and also intimate the total number of candidates expected to attend the programme for circulation of SSC booklets.

With regards,
SSC Eastern Region
