Rapporteur's report

Inaugural Session: 12.00p.m.-12.25 p.m.

The seminar cum workshop was started by greetings & warm welcome to all participants and anchored by Sukanya Mallik, Librarian and Member, ICT-MOOCs Cell, BHKM. Dr. Subhash Biswas, Principal of BHKM was then invited on stage to deliver the welcome address and some words on ICT. As this was the students' week, he described nicely how the week is being celebrated according to the state govt. circular. Then he added how the academics shifted to online platforms like Google classrooms and Zoom meetings and ICT supports the changes in pedagogic designs, learning management systems, teacher centered and learner centered systems, evaluative learning and a whole variety of tools for the same.

Presentation on the use of ICT tools (1.10 pm – 1.25pm)

The next speech was given by Dr. Arghadip Paul, Coordinator, IQAC coordinator of BHKM. He told about the smart tool Google JAMBOARD which helps to save work to the cloud automatically and can be considered as easy-to-read handwriting and shape recognition tool. He showed how quickly JAMBOARD helps to pull in images from a Google search and can save that for later. He told that JAMBOARD supports up to 16 touchpoints at once on a single device. An entire class can join the same jam from other JAMBOARDS and phones and tablets with the JAMBOARD app. Dr. Paul also depicted how this digital whiteboard allows remote or in-person collaboration on a shared space and students can sketch out ideas or draw collaboratively and synchronously.

Presentation on online courses (1.25pm – 1.40 pm)

Then Ashis Biswas, Convenor, ICT, MOOCS Cell, BHKM was invited on the stage. He told about SWAYAM (Study Webs of Active-Learning for Young Aspiring Minds) MOOC Platform which was developed indigenously by AICTE in 2016 to facilitate hosting of online courses which could be accessed by anyone, anywhere at any time free of cost to achieve three cardinal principles of Education Policy i.e. access, equity and quality. He told about MOOCs and its features, all information needed to complete a SWAYAM online certificate course and he trained the students about the procedure for the same.

Presentation on the impact of LIBRARY AUTOMATION in college libraries (1.40pm – 1.55 pm)

The last speaker was Mrs. Sukanya Mallik, Librarian and Member of ICT-MOOCs Cell, BHKM. She told how library automation helps in the better access to the collection through the systemized database. She told about the software KOHA which has been recently implemented in the college library and helps to improve the searching process by advance searching options. It provides a better interface to the users to get integrated information. She also showed the process to search book in OPAC and motivated students to be registered in NDLI and other free online resources of books and journals. She provided the links of OER (Open Educational Resources) to get relevant documents easily according to their needs. She also advised the students to make account in N-LIST to get the access of huge e-resources.

CONCLUSION

Finally the vote of thanks was given by Md. Nasir Uddin Mondal and he told that ICT should be considered as an increasingly integral partner in teaching-learning method and it facilitates students' and teachers' development of international-mindedness through collaboration with others who represent diverse cultural perspectives. To be fully effective, ICT must engage students in applying and developing the trans-disciplinary skills and conceptual understandings.
