THE PROGRAMME: INTRODUCTION

The National Service Scheme (NSS) is a central sector scheme of the government of India, Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports. It allows the students of 11th & 12th , Technical Institutions, graduate & post-graduate at colleges and university level of India to be a part of various government-led community service activities and programs. It aims to provide hands-on experience to young students in delivering community service.

QUAMI EKTA

The Quami Ekta Week is a special weeklong celebration in the country of India observed every 19th to 25th of November every year. The Quami Ekta Week is observed to reinforce, foster, and promote national integration and public harmony. The Quami Ekta Week simply means National Integration Week. During this weeklong celebration, various programs about a specific theme are held. These programs can include symposiums, seminars, meetings, and cultural activities. These programs embody central themes that include non-violence, linguistic harmony, cultural unity, anti-communalism, development of weaker sectors, the wellbeing of minorities, women, and children, conservation, secularism, and at the forefront, national integration.

The NSS team of BHKMahavidyalaya visited ,Christian Para, adopted village of NSS at 21/11/2017 along with Sumita Chatterjee, the organizer of the programme and member NSS , and collected donation from the villagers, they also explained about the Quami Ekta week i.e. Quami Ekta Week is an important event celebrated once a year in India. All Indians celebrate it with love and harmony every year from 19 November to 25 November. These are a week-long event, during which different events related to specific topics are organized each day. This is done to awaken the spirit of equality, brotherhood, and social welfare among all Indians. Quami Ekta Week is also known as the Communal Unity Week in India, and people from every corner of the nation observe it with integrity. A pledge to preserve and strengthen India's independence and honesty is taken during the National Integration Ceremony. It is decided in the pledge that non-violence, peace, and faith will be continued to settle disputes of language, culture, religion, region, and political objections along with all kinds of differences.
